PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE
BESKJED FRA PRESIDENTEN

GREETINGS FELLOW MEMBERS AND FRIENDS:

MERRY CHRISTMAS! GOD JUL! It's that wonderful time of year to be Thankful and Remember the Reason for The Season.

I hope you have made your reservations to our Scandinavian Jule Fest on Sunday, December 10th, from 1p.m. to 4p.m.. We are going to have a wonderful buffet. We will have the Santa Lucia Procession, which is always fun; we need some children to participate. Santa Claus is coming with his helper. We will have the talented Corbins performing holiday music. And don't forget to bring some extra money for the Christmas Raffle, too. We need your reservations by the 4th of December. See page 1. Please come, you don't want to miss the fun!

We had such a wonderful Thanksgiving dinner and meeting. The food was excellent as always. Thank you to everyone who helped with the cooking and serving. You make it even more special.

We had a short business meeting after dinner to vote on our slate of officers for the next two years. Marci Larson presented the slate of officers, the lodge voted and approved. We also honored our Veterans with music provided by Franklin Morrison for each arm of the Armed Forces.

Our Cultural Director, Cheryl Drabek did a program on hygge and had everyone decorate a candle. We all learned something new. Thank you, Cheryl.

Ann Krause, our Financial Benefits Counselor gave a short presentation, too. Thank you, Ann.

On November 19th, Eugene Yerkes took Hagar, our Viking boat to the Orange Park Farmers Market and we sold several Viking hats, cups, troll pencils and several other items. Eugene and Pete Hopkins dressed as Vikings and Gail Yerkes, Marci and Kent Larson, Po Chu and Stewart Svendsen and I talked to a lot of people about Sons of Norway. I think we all would agree it was a lot of fun. Thank you all for being there.

Welcome to the new members who came to our November meeting and the ones who joined that night: Carolyn Hartman, Cathryn Hartman, Don and Alice Franson, JoAnn & Glenn Banschbach, and Lou Corbin .

I am looking forward to seeing all of you on Sunday, December 10th at the Jule Fest.

God Bless You ALL and God Bless America!

Evelyn Hopkins,
Your President

JULENISSEN

Julenissen – The Norwegian Santa Claus

The Norwegian tradition of julenissen ("the Christmas Elf") originally did not have anything to do with a man in red who comes with gifts. People believed that each farm had its own tomtegubben or tomten, who was the ghost of the first farmer to clear the land and build there. He lived in the hayloft or barn, and had to be given his own bowl full of Christmas porridge every Christmas Eve, or he would take revenge by causing mischief around the farm. Eventually the native tomten got combined with the Christian St. Nicholas, and it was then that he acquired his role as a giver of gifts. The traditional Norwegian julenisse is clothed in wool breeches, knitted socks, a sweater and a pointy red hat.

CHRISTMAS IN NORWAY

Førjultida er travel! (The time before Christmas is busy!) In Norway, most people have lots of forberedelser (preparations) to make before jul (Christmas). All of a sudden, it's 24. desember and julaften (Christmas Eve) is there! Har du kjøpt gavene dine alt? (Have you bought your presents already?)

If you visit Norway during førjultida, you'll also see that people everywhere have spent some time on the activity called "å pynte til jul" (to decorate for Christmas). Streets, shops, houses are adorned with stjerner (stars), hjerter (hearts), lys (candles), engler (angels), nisser (pixies with red caps), grangrener (spruce twigs)... On really many windowsills you'll find an adventsstake (Advent Candlestick) with seven electric candles shining throughout the dark winter nights.

Julaften itself also requires a lot of preparation. First and foremost – juletreet skal i hus (the Christmas tree "must in house"). Most people buy a Christmas gran (spruce) in town, but some grab an øks (axe) and do-it-themselves i skogen (in the woods – remember, many places in Norway are a bit like Canada!) På Vestlandet (in Western Norway), some families prefer to have a Christmas furu (pine).

VIKINGS TV SHOW BEGINS

The television program Vikings begins Nov. 29 on the History Channel.

Season five begins with Ivar the Boneless asserting his leadership over the Great Heathen Army, while Lagertha reigns as Queen of Kattegat. Ivar's murder of his brother Sigurd sets the stage for vicious battles to come as Ragnar's sons plot their next moves after avenging their father's death. Bjorn follows his destiny into the Mediterranean Sea and Floki who is suffering from the loss of his wife Helga, takes to the seas submitting himself to the will of the Gods. This season is full of startling alliances and unbelievable betrayals as the Vikings fight to rule the world.

CHRISTMAS TRADITIONS IN NORWAY

In Norway, Christmas is known as "Jul" and celebrated annually on December 25, like in many other places.

The Norwegian Christmas celebrations begin with the Saint Lucia ceremony on December 13. At daybreak, the youngest daughter from each family puts on a white robe with a sash, a crown with evergreens and tall-lighted candles. The boys dress up as star boys in long white shirts and pointed hats. Then the youngest daughter and the other children wake their parents, and serve them coffee and Lucia buns, lussekatter. This is said to commence the Christmas festivities in the country.

In the days counting to Christmas Day, individual homes are decorated beautifully by their inhabitants.

Christmas trees - generally juletre, spruce or pine tree - are set up in each house and traditionally embellished with candles or white lights, Norwegian flags, apples, red harts, cornets, straw ornaments, balls of glass, tinsels and even colourful paper baskets made by the children in the family. The indoors are decked up with lovely flowers such as hyacinths and red tulips.

For most Norwegians, the main celebration of Christmas is on 24 December (Christmas Eve). Traditionally, this is a day to be spent in the company of family members. During noon, "lillejulaften" (rice porridge) is usually served. An almond is often hidden in the porridge, and the person who finds it wins a treat or small gift - usually a marzipan pig. In some regions of the country, the porridge dish is usually placed outside (in a barn, outhouse or even in the forest) to please "Julenissen" ("Santa Claus" - as called in Norway). In the afternoon, church bells ring to beckon people to the church services. Many people attend these religious services. At five p.m., church bells toll to announce the beginning of Christmas. In some families, there is a custom of reading a Christmas story from Luke 2 from an old family Bible. The main Christmas meal is served in the evening. The main dishes commonly include pork rib, "pinnekjøtt" (pieces of lamb rib steamed over birch branches). In some western areas, a burned sheep's head form the main dish. Many people also eat "lutefisk" or fresh, poached cod. Traditional drinks are beer and aquavit for adults and "julebrus" (a sweet red fizzy drink made specially during Christmastime) for children. A favorite Christmas dessert is rice blended with whipped cream served with a red sauce.

On Christmas Day, most families have a big brunch at noon or dinner in the afternoon. People invite their friends and loved ones to have meal with them. Cakes and cookies are relished together and everyone is wished God Jul! (Merry Christmas). Different nuts, fruits, figs, dates and sweets also belong to the celebration.

For children, Christmas is a time for gifts and goodies from "Julenissen" (Santa Claus), who is said to reward all good kids for their nice actions and behaviour all through the year. But presents are not to be expected only during this time as in "Romjulen", the days between Christmas and New Years Eve, Norwegian children often go from house to house in the afternoon asking for sweets. This tradition is known as "Julebukk" or "Christmas buck" and was very popular in the Viking era when pagans worshipped Thor and his goat. By the end of the Middle Ages, the custom was forbidden by the Church and the state. Though the tradition has made a comeback in recent decades, just a few children keep up the tradition today.

WANT TO BE A VIKING BOATS BOOSTER?
Here's what you do!

In order to help defray maintenance and storage costs for our two replica Viking boats, the lodge has started a booster program similar to our newsletter booster program. It's very simple with three levels of annual giving:

- Admiral - $100
- Captain - $50
- Seaman - $25

Hagar and Tapper Viking have been a lodge "center piece" for many years. They have enhanced our visibility for Sons of Norway in North Florida as we participate in varied light parades, the annual Opening of the Beaches parade, zone regattas, festivals and farmers markets.

For a dozen years, boat storage was complimentary but now we must pay a substantial amount to protect the boats from the weather's elements. The lodge has been looking for cheaper alternatives, but no solution has yet been found. Your generosity is greatly appreciated to help offset the costs. Your name will be listed in the newsletter as a Viking Boats Booster.

Sports Director Eugene Yerkes can answer questions and accept your donation either in cash or check made payable to Gateway to Florida SON Lodge. Eugene can be reached at eugene.yerkes@att.net.

Rice Pudding (Riskrem) Adapted from arcticgrub.wordpress.com. Makes about 4 portions

- 2 cups rice porridge*
- 2 tbsp confectioners sugar or to taste
- 2 tsp vanilla sugar or vanilla extract
- 1 1/2 cups heavy cream or coconut cream
- 50 grams or 1/4 cup toasted almonds, chopped (optional)

Whisk coconut cream or heavy cream with the confectioners sugar and vanilla sugar/extract in a stand mixer until fluffy. Fold the whipped cream with the rice porridge and sprinkle in the chopped almonds.

*Rice Porridge (Risengrynsgrøt)

- 1 cup short grain rice, such as Arborio • 2 cups water
- 4 cups almond milk (or coconut milk) • 1 vanilla bean pod, split in half
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar • 1/2 tsp salt

Drain rinsed rice in a colander. Add water and rice to a pot and bring to boil. Lower temperature to a simmer and cook until all water has been absorbed. Add milk, insides of vanilla pod as well as shell, sugar and salt. Bring to boil while whisking constantly, do not allow milk to burn at the bottom. Lower temperature to simmer for 45 minutes or until porridge consistency. Pour into a bowl to cool for rice pudding or keep warm and serve with butter, sugar and cinnamon.

FRA PRESIDENTEN: DISTRICT 3 PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Year's end is neither an end nor a beginning but a going on, with all the wisdom that experience can instill in us. Cheers to a new year and another chance for us to get it right. Oprah Winfrey

This is my last Christmas season as 3D President and it has been a fun and at times wild ride. We as a District have accomplished so much this year, some of it behind the scenes. Some things we see front and center in your wonderful lodge newsletters. I love reading them so keep them coming!

I see so much opportunity for us to grow and strengthen our fraternal connections. To be sure, we will change. I see change in the lodge calendars, the things we do and try. We are beginning to do things just a little different, we may make some tweaks here and there, but we still hold onto our core values and traditions. I can't wait to join in the singing of the lutefisk song at my lodge's lutefisk and meatball dinner, it is hilarious. I also can't wait to dance around the Christmas tree at our Jultrefest. Keeping our customs and traditions alive will always be central to who we are. Yet, we Norwegians are an adventurous lot willing to try new things and it is this adventurous spirit that will keep us going for many years to come.

I wish you health and happiness always but especially during the holiday season as we gather with friends and families. Let's remember our fraternal brothers and sisters who may be spending the holidays alone and "reach and touch" them; give them a ride to your lodge's events. ("Joy multiplies when it is shared among friends." R.A. Salvatore ). That is what fraternalism is all about.

I hope you had a great Thanksgiving and wish you God Jul og Godt nyttår.

All the best,
Mary Andersen

O LUTEFISK, O LUTEFISK

To The Tune of O Christmas Tree
Original Words: O Tannenbaum, Ernst Gebhard Anschutz,
1824
Adaptation by Red Stangeland

O Lutefisk, O Lutefisk, how fragrant your aroma,
O Lutefisk, O Lutefisk, you put me in a coma.
You smell so strong, you look like glue,
You taste just like an overshoe,
But lutefisk, come Saturday,
I tink I eat you anyvay.
O Lutefisk, O lutefisk, I put you in the doorway.
I wanted you to ripen up just like they do in Norway.
A dog came by and sprinkled you.
I hit him with my overshoe.
O lutefisk, now I suppose
I'll eat you while I hold my nose.
O Lutefisk, O lutefisk, how well I do remember.

On Christmas Eve how we'd receive our big treat of December.
It wasn't turkey or fried ham.
It wasn't even pickled Spam.
My mother knew there was no risk
In serving buttered lutefisk.
O Lutefisk, O lutefisk, now everyone discovers
That lutefisk and lefse make Norwegians better lovers.
Now all the world can have a ball.
You're better than that Yeritol.
O lutefisk, with brennevin [Norwegian brandy]
You make me feel like Errol Flynn.
O Lutefisk, O lutefisk, you have a special flavor.
O Lutefisk, O lutefisk, all good Norwegians savor
That slimy slab we know so well
Identified by ghastly smell.
O Lutefisk, O lutefisk,
Our loyalty won't waver.
